Happy New Year! I had hoped to get my first edition of The Carnethy out before the end of 2018, however family visiting from Canada and general holiday relaxation took precedence. But as they say, better late than never. I hope you enjoy this edition. If for some reason you don't, let me know by email on journal [at] carnethy [dot] com. Positive feedback is also welcome.

Running is a method of terrestrial locomotion allowing humans and other animals to move rapidly on foot. Running is a type of gait characterized by an aerial phase in which all feet are above the ground (though there are exceptions). This is in contrast to walking, where one foot is always in contact with the ground, the legs are kept mostly straight and the center of gravity vaults over the ...
