Slavery was prevalent in many parts of Africa for many centuries before the beginning of the Atlantic slave trade. There is evidence that enslaved people from some parts of Africa were exported to states in Africa, Europe, and Asia prior to the European colonization of the Americas.. The Atlantic slave trade was not the only slave trade from Africa, although it was the largest in volume and ...

Typical slave codes. There are many similarities between the various slave codes. The most common elements are: Movement Restrictions: Most regions required any slaves away from their plantations or outside of the cities they resided in to have a pass signed by their master (list of codes here). Many cities in the slave-states required slave-tags, small copper badges that enslaved people wore ...
