A gunsmith is a person who repairs, modifies, designs, or builds guns. This occupation differs from an armorer who usually only replaces worn parts in standard firearms. A gunsmith actually does modifications and changes to a firearm that may require a very high level of craftsmanship requiring the skills of a top level machinist, a very skilled wood worker, and even an engineer.

Very interesting development. The only thing I noticed was the choice of a 1-6x optic. Might be worth looking into something like the Steiner ICS, which has an integral range finder that adjusts the reticle for distance, especially since this rifle is designed for filling the "performance gap" in the 500-800+ meter range.
